CAMPSITE REGULATIONS

GENERAL TERMS

1° ENTRANCE TERMS

No-one is allowed to enter, settle or stay on the campsite without prior authorization of the manager (or his representative), who is responsible for ensuring that the campsite is correctly maintained and that rules and regulations are respected.
Staying on the campsite requires that you accept and agree to comply with the present rules and regulations.
No-one staying at the campsite may use it as their permanent address.

2° POLICE FORMALITIES

Minors travelling without their parents will only be accepted upon presentation of a written parents' authorization.
The campsite manager is required to ensure that all foreign visitors complete and sign an individual police form upon arrival (in accordance with Article R.611-35 of the "Code on the entry and stay of foreign nationals and the right to asylum"). In particular, the information collected on the form must include the following: 1° Surname and first names, 2° Date and place of birth, 3° Nationality, 4° Usual place of residence. Children under the age 15 may be listed on one of their parents' forms.

3° SETTLING

Tents, caravans and any other camping equipment must be placed on the pitch indicated by the campsite manager or his representative.

4° RECEPTION

Open from 9 a.m. till 12 a.m. and from 3 p.m. till 7 p.m.
The Reception provides all useful information regarding campsite facilities, possibilities of fresh supplies, sport facilities, interesting local sights and other useful addresses.
A book or special box for complaints is at the disposal of the campers. Complaints will only be taken into consideration if they are signed, dated, as detailed as possible and relate to quite recent events.
An established complaints procedure is available.

5° DISPLAYING THE RULES

These rules and regulations must be displayed at the Campsite entrance and at the Reception. They can be supplied to any customer on request.
Classified campsites must display their category and specify whether they are touring or holyday sites. The number of touring and holyday pitches must be specified.
Visitors must be notified of the prices for the different services available according to the procedures laid down by order of the Minister for Consumer Affairs, and these must be on display at the reception.

6° DEPARTURE PROCEDURE

Visitors are asked to inform reception on the day before their intended departure. If campers want to leave the campsite before the Reception opens, they must pay relevant taxes the day before their departure.

7° NOISE AND SILENCE

Campers are required to avoid any noise and talking which may disturb their neighbours and to moderate the volume of radios and other acoustic appliances. Please close your doors and car boots gently.
Dogs and other animals are only allowed if kept on a lead, and are the sole responsibility of their owners. They must never be left alone on the campsite, even if locked in.
The campsite manager must ensure that his/her visitors can enjoy their stay in peace by setting certain times when there must be complete quiet.

8° GUESTS

After authorization by the manager or his representative, guests are allowed to enter the campsite. Campers are responsible for their guests while on site. Campers may meet one or more guests at the reception. Guests may make use of the campsite amenities and facilities. There may be a charge for their use, which must be displayed at the campsite entrance and at the reception.
Visitors cars are not allowed on the campsite.

9° TRAFFIC AND PARKING

Within the campsite, vehicles must be driven at a restricted speed.
Driving is allowed between 8 a.m. and 11 p.m.
Only campers staying on the campsite can drive into the camping area. Parking on tent or caravan pitches is strictly forbidden, unless they have been specially designated as parking spaces. Parked vehicles should not disturb the movement or the settling of newcomers.

10° RESPECT FOR THE SITE

Everyone is required to respect and help maintain the cleanliness and hygiene of the campsite and to avoid any action which compromises the campsite hygiene, appearance and services, particularly the sanitary facilities. Do not throw dirty water on the ground or in the gutters. Caravaners must dispose of their sewage in the designated disposal unit in the Shower/Washroom block. Please put household refuse, scraps of any kind and paper in designated bins.

No washing is permitted outside the designated sinks. If necessary, washing may be hung on the communal line, if provided. Hanging out washing close to tents and caravans is allowed until 10 a.m. providing this does not bother your neighbours. Please avoid attaching washing lines to trees.
Plantations, flowers and shrubbery must be respected. Campers are not allowed to dig into the ground, hammer nails into trees, cut branches or plant anything. Do not demarcate pitches by yourself. The pitch used during your stay must be kept and left in the state in which it is found on arrival.
Anyone who causes damage to the campsite plants, fences, ground or facilities will be responsible for the cost of the repairs.

11° SECURITY

a) Fire: Open fires (wood, charcoal, etc.) are strictly prohibited. Cooking equipment must be in excellent condition and not be used in hazardous conditions. In case of fire, inform the camp manager immediately. Fire extinguishers are at everyone's disposal. A first-aid kit is available at the Reception.
b) Theft: Management is responsible for items left at the Reception and also for general surveillance of the campsite. Campers remain responsible for their own site and contents/property held there and must inform the manager of any suspicious presence. Though the campsite is watched over, campers are required to take care of their own property.

12° GAMES

No rough or noisy games are allowed near to the campsite facilities. The common room can only be used for quiet games.
Children must always be under the close supervision of their parents.

13° UNOCCUPIED TENTS AND CARAVANS

Unoccupied tents or caravans may be left on the campsite only with the approval of the Campsite manager and on the specified pitch. A fee will be charged for caravans or tents left on the Campsite. Please check the rates posted at the Reception.

14° INFRINGEMENT OF RULES AND REGULATIONS

Should a camper disturb the stay of any other camper or fail to honour these rules and regulations, the manager or his representative will give formal notice to stop this behaviour, either orally or, if necessary, in writing. Continued serious or repeated infringement of these rules and regulations following a formal request to conform to them may lead to the expulsion of the offender. In case of unlawful actions, the manager may call the Police.

PARTICULAR TERMS

1° POLICE FORMALITIES
Any person wishing to stay at least one night on the campsite must present his/her identity papers to the manager or his representative and carry out the police formalities.

2° NOISE AND SILENCE
Complete silence is required between 11 p.m. and 8 a.m.

3° ANIMALS
Documentation of vaccination against rabies is compulsory. All dogs must be kept on a lead at all times, and they must be taken outside the camping area for toilet purposes (owners must clear up any “accidents” thoroughly). Dogs must never be left unattended on the campsite and must never be allowed to disturb the peace of neighbours through barking or any other interference.
ACCESS TO THE SWIMMING POOL AND SANITARY FACILITIES IS STRICTLY PROHIBITED TO ALL ANIMALS.

4° TRAFFIC AND PARKING
Only one vehicle per pitch is allowed. Any additional vehicles must be left in the parking area.

5° SWIMMING POOL
Access to the swimming pool and its surrounds is strictly prohibited between 21:00 and 9:00 and is otherwise exclusively reserved for our customers. The swimming pool is not supervised and the safety of children remains entirely the responsibility of parents. Swimming costumes only are to be worn in the swimming pool.

6° PARKING WITHOUT OCCUPANCY
Please note: We do not insure 'parking without occupancy' out of season, i.e. while the Campsite is closed to the public.
